Dr. Knight left Wednesday morning for Sylvan Lake to remain during the hay fever season.

Charlie Tully, the genial merchant-stockman of Lakeside, was a visitor at the metropolis Tuesday.

John Curran came in from the ranch Tuesday night and remained till Thursday, looking up help for the hay fields.

L. M. Kennedy and sons went out to the Bellwood ranch Wednesday, where they have a contract for stacking hay.

County Superintendent Baumgardner returned Sunday from Denver where he spent several days on business and pleasure.

Rev. C. H. Burleigh was up from Lakeside yesterday and gave this office the benefit of his genial presence a few minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hamilton and daughter Vera returned the latter part of the week from their visit of two weeks in Colorado.

Father Galvin left Tuesday morning for Colorado Springs to spend a few days with Bishop Scannell. He will return Saturday morning.

Mrs. A. L. Hart and son who have visited Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Suprise for a couple of weeks, returned Sunday to their home at Denison, Iowa.

Mrs. Wm. Boland and daughter returned to Sheridan yesterday after several weeks visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hill and other relatives.

While working in the stock yards last Sunday Danny Crilly caught the fingers of his hand between the heavy gates which may make amputation of one finger necessary.

Mrs. Kelly who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hewett for several weeks, left Tuesday for a short visit at Hot Springs after which she will return to her home in Bloomington, Neb.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve ice cream on the church lawn next Tuesday evening, August 4. If the weather is unfavorable then in the church. Ice cream and cake 15c. All are invited.

Miss Grace Wheeler, who has taught in Alliance during the past three years, is spending a few weeks with relatives and friends here. She is on her way to Edgemont where she will teach the coming year.

Mrs. F. M. Broome entertained the Cheese and Cracker club Thursday afternoon. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Broome, assisted by Miss Gavin. A large number of ladies were present and a very pleasant time is reported.

Mesdames B. Mewhirter and G. W. Young returned Wednesday morning from their trip through the Black Hills. Mrs. Mewhirter was summoned to Grand Island Wednesday to see her sister Miss Hazel Thorp who is ill.

A large shipment of clothing for the benefit of the flood sufferers of East St. Louis, under the management of the members of the Order of Railway Conductors was forwarded last Saturday. This is the second shipment made for this most worthy purpose and was forwarded by the railroad company free of charge.

The many friends of Rev. J. A. Scamahorn were pleased to meet that gentleman for a short time last Monday as he was making the return trip from Lakeside, where he had been conducting quarterly meeting. This year will be the last in which Rev. Scamahorn will fill the office of presiding elder, he having served the limit of time allowed by the church.

Miss Nina Ridgell and Mrs. Ford who have been visiting their brother, W. D. Ridgell and wife, left last Saturday for Richmond, Mo. Miss "Ridgell" is an accomplished musician and expects to continue her studies in this art in a musical school of New York. Both ladies made many friends while here, who will gladly give them a welcome should they return to Alliance.

Last Sunday afternoon at three o'clock the funeral services of Miss Addie Feather were held in the Methodist church, the services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Horn. The large building would not seat the many friends who by their presence in this sad hour showed their sympathy with the sorrowing family. Many floral offerings were brought to the church, one of the handsomest being presented by the young girls. A long procession of carriages accompanied the remains to Greenwood cemetery where they were laid to rest.

Dancing School Saturday Night.

Miss Minnie Morris will hold her dancing school tomorrow (Saturday) evening on account of the lecture in the opera house last Monday evening.

BIDS FOR NORMAL.

Fifteen Towns Compete for State School.

Alliance, 20 acres and	$10,000
Ansboro, 24 acres and	10,000
Long Pine, 40 acres and	10,000
Fairfield, 20 acres, building and	10,000
Central City, 20 acres and	20,200
Lexington, 20 acres and	22,000
Ord, 20 acres and	1,000
Kearney, 20 acres, building and	15,000
Gothenburg, 20 acres, and	15,000
Broken Bow, 30 acres, and	15,000
St. Paul, 20 acres, and	10,000
Hastings, 22 acres, building and	28,200
Hastings, 22 acres, and	20,000
Hastings, 22 acres, and	20,000
Holdrege, 20 acres, and	25,000
Aurora, 20 acres, and	35,000
North Platte, 10 acres, and	10,000
North Platte, 10 acres, and bonds	20,000

Bids from the above towns were opened by the state board of education at Lincoln, Tuesday. When Alliance decided to compete for the state normal school it did not expect to offer the bonus that Hastings and other towns could do, believing that the logic the state board would employ in determining the location will be the greatest good to the greatest area and numbers and not the material advantage that may accrue in a financial way to any one locality. The committee submitted a brief with their proposition, which brought out the most logical reasons why the school should be located at Alliance and we are pleased to note that in the selection of a site the board will consider the matter as the following from the State Journal would indicate:

QUESTION OF VALUES.

"Although most of the bids placed a value on the site or buildings offered, the board appears to take little stock in computations of that kind. The members will place their own value on the property. Under the law the site must not be less than twenty acres of land, which shall be worth at least $75 an acre.

As the future needs of the state, as far as state normal school facilities are concerned, the railroad facilities, the geographical location and the amount of the cash bonus and many other matters must be considered, it will be a difficult matter for the board to arrive at a decision. The town that offers the most money may not be considered a desirable location geographically, and the town that offers no money, whatever may have many advantages not possessed by some whose bids appear to be better. At the outset the board gave out hints that old buildings were not so desirable as one built by the board for the especial purpose for which it is intended. Some have indicated that a town now possessing a state institution would have hard work to secure this school."

The board will visit each of the towns which will require about thirty days and a decision may not be announced for a month or two.

PRICELESS PATRIOTISM.

Hon. M. F. Harrington Refuses Even His Expenses for Fourth of July Oration.

The accompanying letter explains itself. In the present world it is the mark of a superior man to refuse money that is justly his. It shows in this sordid world of ours that some may still be found whose souls and minds are above price. Such men are worthy of esteem and their friendship is something to be treasured. THE HERALD in behalf of the committee and the people of Alliance thanks Mr. Harrington for this act of courtesy. The time may come when we may repay this generosity in a more tangible manner.

LAW OFFICE OF
M. F. HARRINGTON,
O'Neill, Neb.

July 25, '03.

MR. T. J. O'KEEFE,

Alliance, Nebraska.

DEAR FRIEND:

I return you check for $25.00 sent me to pay my expenses to Alliance on the 4th of July. I have never taken even expense for a Fourth of July address, and shall certainly not begin with the people of your town and particularly so in view of the fact that you were the chairman and general master of ceremony of the whole celebration.

Yours truly,

M. F. HARRINGTON.

Destructive Storm.

The worst hail and wind storm in late years passed through the country north of here Tuesday evening. The splendid crops of small grain, corn and potatoes that the people were looking forward to for a beautiful harvest were in many instances totally destroyed by the hail while the wind played havoc with windmills and other improvements. It is reported that the storm extended as far north as Chadron. The depot at Belmont was partially demolished. Although the wind at Alliance was very high, little damage was done.

Misses Mary and Alicia Regan are visiting their brother at Lead, S. D. The ladies are having such a delightful time that they may prolong their visit till next week.

Mrs. Theodore Colvin and daughter were down from Hemingford Monday.

Mrs. E. E. Ford came down from Lawn Sunday evening to attend the normal.

Clark Olds, the sage of Hemingford, spent a couple of days in the city the first of the week.

B. F. Benedict arrived Tuesday from Geneva to visit a week with his brother J. E. Benedict.

The baby of H. E. Smith was buried yesterday. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Horn.

Guy Lockwood left Sunday morning for Chicago where he expects to take a course in embalming and undertaking.

Attorney Mitchell made a trip to Bridgeport Monday to attend a meeting of the directors of an irrigation company.

Mrs. E. P. Sweeney and Master Freddie left Monday for Galesburg, Ill., to spend six weeks or two months with relatives.

The county commissioners were in session Tuesday and part of Wednesday. The result of their labors may be seen on another page of this issue.

The ball game between the Modern Woodmen and Knights of Pythias next Sunday afternoon will be as great an attraction as the Boston Bloomers.

Glen and Orville Hampton went to Hot Springs Saturday to spend a day with Mrs. Hampton and party, who were on their return from a trip through the Hills.

Mrs. Mike Elmore was accompanied from Omaha by Mrs. Dunphy, an aunt of Mr. Elmore. Her home is at Altoona, Pa. They will visit Hot Springs before returning.

O. D. Rouse was down from his ranch in Nonpareil precinct Wednesday. He says the wind Tuesday evening was very strong, demolishing his windmill and doing other damage.

The new brick school house at Hyannis was badly damaged by the storm Tuesday evening. The windows were broken out by hail which allowed the wind to enter and the wall on one side was blown down.

Mrs. Edwin Fulton of Kansas City, arrived Sunday to spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Molling. Mrs. Fulton's husband is one of the best known insurance men in the City on the Kaw.

Capt. Allen G. Fisher was in the city Monday morning, leaving on No. 41 for Marland where he had legal business. There is talk that Capt. Fisher will be one of the candidates on the republican ticket for district judge this fall.

Mrs. Carroway returned to her home at Bloomington, Ill., this week after spending several days with Mrs. Richardson. Mrs. Carroway's faith in the future of Alliance is so strong that she invested in several lots and let the contract for the building of four cottages.

E. H. Batty, publisher of the Record at Alma, Neb., made this office a fraternal call Saturday. He was much impressed with Alliance and when we informed him that it is the best city of its size in the state said, "I believe it." Mr. Batty is also engaged in the real estate and mining business and was enroute west to look after his interests.

Miss Ada Heist the talented elocutionist and actress, departed Monday for Crawford, where she, with the help of local talent, will in a few weeks give the play "Hazel Kirke," which was played so successfully here this summer. Miss Heist has many friends here who appreciate her genius and wish heartily for her success. She will again fill an engagement with a Chicago theatre during the coming winter.

The pastor of the M. E. Church will devote ten minutes of each Sunday service to the word-picturing of important Bible history sites. On next Sunday the Holy Land subjects will be "The Church of Saint Anne at Jerusalem and the Potter's Field." The following sermon subjects are announced: Morning at 11:00 o'clock, "The Reign of Heart Service." Evening at 8:00 o'clock, "God's Ways of Forgetting."

An Inviting Place.

Mitchell Bros., opened their new cafe to the public Tuesday evening. They have a fine room, elegant fixtures and the menu contains everything one could wish for. It is the finest cafe in this section.

Remember The Game.

The original Boston Bloomers, Ladies' Champion Base Ball Club, who are making an extensive tour of this country, travel in their own special private car, will play the most novel, interesting and exciting game of ball with the first nine of Alliance Thursday afternoon, August 6, at 3 p.m. that has ever been witnessed in this town. Ladies can attend this game without fear of being offended, as nothing will be said or done that would shock the most fastidious. Admission 25c.

BROKE QUARANTINE LAW.

George Hedgecock Fined $25 and Costs.

George Hedgecock who was confined in the pest house for two weeks or more, having been released Saturday, was placed under arrest Tuesday on the charge of having aided Miss Charlotte Osborne in escaping from the pest house Sunday night. He had a hearing before Police Judge Berry and pleaded guilty. The court fixed the fine at $25 and costs. Dr. Bellwood has been commended by the state board of health for the manner in which he has handled the small pox cases in this city and while we regret that anyone should get into trouble of this kind, yet feel that the citizens should do everything in their power to assist the health officer and city officials in stamping out the dread disease which can only be done by adhering strictly to quarantine rules and the punishment of any who violate these rules.

Left Pest House Without Permission.

Miss Charlotte Osborne who was taken to the pest house July 1 suffering with an attack of smallpox left there last Sunday night without permission of the authorities and boarded the midnight train for her home at Edgar, this state. It appears that she thought her recovery such that she should be set at liberty. The health officer did not consider that she was in a condition to leave the pest house. As soon as the authorities learned that she had gone they at once began a search for her and a reply from a telegram sent by Mayor Buechsenstein to the mayor of Edgar stated that she was there and had been placed under quarantine. Miss Osborne probably did not realize the danger to which she was exposing others while disobeying the law. The officers are to be commended for the way in which they took the matter in charge in their efforts to protect the public safety.

To the Public.

In the sickness, operation and death of our beloved daughter, Addie, we believe that we have had all the skill, forethought and careful attendance that Drs. Mitchell, Bellwood, Moore and her devoted nurse, Mrs. Ingersoll, were capable of and that no others or any surgical hospital could do any better. We firmly believe the operation to have been an unqualified success. Heart failure developed after the operation and to Almighty God who in his wisdom sent the electric storm which frightened her into the fever which resulted fatally—we ascribe the result. To the many kind friends who were so lavish in friendliness, solicitude and beautiful flowers, may we say, that when sorrow and death come to you, may you, like Addie, as peacefully and gently "go up stairs and go to sleep."

Respectfully,
MR. AND MRS. E. A. FEATHER.

A quiet little wedding took place last Sunday at the home Rev. Jeffers, the happy couple being Miss Margaret Combs of Charleston, Iowa, and Elmer Roland of Hemingford. Miss Combs arrived from the east Sunday morning and was met at the train by Mr. Rowland and his sister, Miss Bertha. They proceeded at once to the parsonage where the ceremony was performed. Mrs. Rowland is well known in Hemingford and vicinity, having taught there the past winter. Mr. Roland is employed in the mercantile house of H. L. Bushnell and has many friends who will wish he and his wife happiness and success.

A small party of prominent Columbus people passed through Alliance Wednesday enroute to Hot Springs for a few days recreation. The party was composed of Judge Sullivan, of the Nebraska supreme court; Judge Edgar Howard of the Columbus Telegram and Mr. James Reeder, all of whom were accompanied by their wives. During their brief stay here, W. A. Hampton, W. D. Rumer, Mayor Buechsenstein and the writer enjoyed a pleasant visit with them. The party may stop here a day on their return.

This week we publish the calls of the republican state, judicial and county conventions. THE HERALD has more republican subscribers than any paper in the county and many of them read no other county paper. It is our wish to gratify our readers in every way and we shall no longer adhere to the custom which prevails among country papers that they are obliged to publish only the political news of interest to followers of their own political party.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morris were called to Chadron Tuesday by the news of the serious illness of their son John, a fireman on the Elkhorn road, who while playing in a game of ball was stricken with sunstroke. Mr. and Mrs. Morris found their son's condition was not as serious as reported and he accompanied them home last evening to remain a couple of weeks.
